SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1920.

NO. 21

SUPERVISORS TO ATTEND MEET JUNE 5

TO BE PRESENT AT INVITATION
PRESERVATION LEAGUE; OTHER
MATTERS OF INTEREST BEFORE
COUNTY BOARD REPORTED.

The county supervisors in a body will attend the meeting of the San Mateo Preservation League called for June 5th. This developed at Monday's meeting of the board, when a communication was received from the league asking that a committee be appointed from the board to attend. Chairman John MacBain appointed the board as a whole on this committee.

All members of the board were present at Monday's meeting except Supervisor Joseph Francis.

In the matter of the petition of the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco, asking that certain obstructions placed across Arroyo avenue in San Carlos by Fred W. Lippman be ordered removed, District Attorney Swart rendered an opinion that, as the road had never been accepted by the supervisors, the board had no jurisdiction in the matter. The board denied the petition. It also denied the petition of Mrs. Fred Lippman and a number of San Carlos residents against the opening of Arroyo avenue.

The request of Dr. W. T. Harrelson of the United States Health Service that funds appropriated six months ago to help in the war on ground squirrels be continued, was granted.

A resolution favoring the construction of a state exposition building in Oakland was passed.

The claim of Charles Steele for salary as traffic officer from January 21st to January 30th was denied.

A communication received from the Redwood post of the American Legion, favoring an adequate salary for school teachers, was filed.

Current bills against the county were audited and ordered paid.

The board will meet again June 7th at 10 a. m.

"KITE DAY" WILL BE HELD IN SO. S. F. JUNE 5

A "kite day" has been arranged by the Y. M. C. A. to take place in South San Francisco Saturday, June 5th. Similar events have taken place in other towns and have always aroused much interest and keen competition among the youthful contestants.

The plan, as outlined by those making the arrangements, is to include girls among those who may enter kites as well as boys. The prizes to be given will be awarded in each of seven groups, including the most beautiful kite, best insect, bird, animal or man kite, the highest fliers, the strongest pullers, eighth of a mile race, kite antics, steadiest fliers, messengers, parachutes, balloon ascensions, aeroplane models, kite battle, and most novel feature.

Several conditions are announced, among them the following: Every kite to receive award must fly; judging will commence at 9:30; kites must be made by the competitor; contestant will be allowed a helper except in kite battle; contestants must register before event; separate prizes will be given juniors (under 10 years) and seniors (over ten years).

RECEIVES NEWS SISTER SERIOUSLY ILL IN EAST

Miss Margaret Ahern, one of the nurses at the South San Francisco Hospital, left for Deadwood, South Dakota, Tuesday, called East by the serious illness of a sister. The telegram received stated the sick woman was not expected to live.

SALARY INCREASES AT TWO HIGH SCHOOLS

Redwood City and San Mateo School Boards Provide for Teachers Getting Raise Next Year.

The trustees of two of the high schools of San Mateo county, those at Redwood City and San Mateo, have announced salary increases for the teachers the coming year. At the county seat the increases will aggregate about $4000 for the year, at San Mateo about $14,000.

At Redwood the male teachers will hereafter receive the sum of $2400 a year, while the women will get from $1800 to $2000. The principal, S. P. McCrea, will receive $3250.

At San Mateo the increases range from $120 to $540 per year. The maximum salary has been raised from $1680 to $2220 and the minimum will be $1800. The new arrangement provides a salary of $1800 for a teacher the first year and an increase of $60 for each year of service for seven years, so that a teacher who has been at the school seven years will receive the maximum of $2220.

Heads of departments receive $120 per year additional and the dean of girls gets $240 per year extra. The vice-principal receives an additional $360 per annum. The principal is granted an increase of $400 a year.

ANGELO SCAMPINI TAKES LIFE INSURANCE AGENCY

A. P. Bellisle, district manager of the International Life Insurance Company, has announced the appointment of Angelo J. Scampini as his South San Francisco agent. Bellisle is already well known in this region, as is the company he represents, while as to Angelo—he knows everybody and everybody knows him.

NORTH END ATHLETIC LEAGUE IS FORMED

School Athletics Organized; Cup Will Be Grand Prize.

Lewis E. Adams, supervising principal of the South San Francisco schools, has announced the formation of the North End Athletic League. The members of the league will all be scholars from the different schools of the north end of San Mateo county, including Crocker Tract, Woodrow Wilson (both of Daly City), Colma, Visitation Valley, San Bruno, Lomita Park, and South San Francisco.

The events scheduled for the league will be baseball and basketball games, for both boys and girls. A schedule has not yet been arranged, but will be announced at an early date. The first games will be played after the taking up of the fall term of school, basketball being the game to be played in the fall and baseball in the spring.

There will be a number of events played in each division of the schedule, these being arranged to take place at the different schools in the league, the finals to be played at the South San Francisco high school. A valuable cup will be given to the school winning the largest number of championships in the league. The young people of the various schools are showing much enthusiasm for the league and lively contests are expected to result.

GIRLS' PATRIOTIC CLUB TO BE REORGANIZED

The Girls' Patriotic Club, an organization which was very active during the war, held its first meeting for some months at the library Monday night. There were about twenty of the girl members present. Miss Viola Hein was elected a committee of one to find a place to hold future meetings of the club and also to choose a club leader. The next meeting will be held next Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. At this time a definite plan of action for the future will be decided upon.

UNCLE SAM MAKES HIS OWN MAIL BAGS

The United States post office department during 1919 saved $80,000 by manufacturing its own mail bags, and a great deal more by the manufacture and repair of other articles, according to the department's accountants. This photograph shows a portion of the mail bag factory.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TODAY; EXCELLENT PROGRAM PLANNED

Everything looks favorable for a big attendance at the Radcliffe Chautauqua, which opens in South San Francisco this afternoon. The "big top" arrived in town Wednesday, and is now ready to shelter the audiences that will gather in the next three days to enjoy the splendid entertainment and educational features which the Chautauqua brings. This is the first time that the residents of South San Francisco or the entire north end of San Mateo county have had the opportunity to attend entertainments of the high quality which the Chautauqua provides without going many miles from home, and there seems no question but that they will show their appreciation by a generous patronage.

The committee is determined that the Chautauqua here shall be such a success as to guarantee its being an annual feature from now on, as it is in many of the wide-awake cities of the United States. Every city must be the better for the visit of the Chautauqua with its uplifting influence. The keener one's sense of appreciation of the best in the line of lectures and musical features of different kinds, the more the Chautauqua appeals. This is true to such an extent that those who keep close touch on matters pertaining to education and general culture declare they can gauge the cultural status of a city by its patronage of the Chautauqua.

The Chautauqua will be in South San Francisco but three week days, giving two performances each day. School is to be dismissed early Friday and Monday, that pupils and teachers may attend. Sunday afternoon a lecture will be given at the big tent by the director. This is an event added to the regular program and no admission charge will be made, the public being cordially invited to attend.

HOSPITAL PLANS ACCEPTED; WORK TO START SOON

William M. Toepke of San Mateo has been declared the winner of the architects' contest instituted by the county supervisors and his plans selected for the new county hospital. Mr. Toepke will receive 6 per cent of the cost of construction as his fee. William Shea of San Mateo was awarded the second prize of $500, and E. L. Norberg of Burlingame took the third prize of $400. As there were but three entrants, the fourth prize of $300 was not awarded.

The hospital will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000. It will be erected on the site at Beresford purchased by the county from K. O'Grady. Preparations for the starting of work are now under way and it is planned to begin construction within a short time.

The committee of judges was composed of B. H. Pendleton of the State Board of Control; Dr. R. G. Broderick of the Alameda county hospital; Dr. F. A. Gillehan of the State Board of Health; John B. Leonard, consulting engineer, and Fred H. Meyer, San Francisco architect, who was selected by the competing architects.

Chairman John MacBain of the board of supervisors and Dr. Wood C. Baker, the county physician, acted as advisory members of the committee of judges, but had no votes.

RAISCH CO. ASKS MORE TIME ON JOB

Difficulty of Getting Material Is Causing Delay Paving Swift Avenue; Sixty Days Granted.

The meeting of the South San Francisco city trustees held at the city hall Monday was devoted chiefly to routine matters.

An extension of sixty days was granted the Raisch Improvement Company for the finishing of the paving of Swift avenue. The company asked this extension, stating that owing to the difficulty of getting materials the work had been unavoidably delayed. The city officials granted the extension on the condition that the company's sureties raise no objection.

Peter Pala, owner of the Central Hotel building on San Bruno road which was practically destroyed by fire recently, made application for permission to rebuild the structure two stories high. As South San Francisco's fire ordinance states that where a building is damaged by fire to the extent of one-half its value it must be rebuilt, the doubt was raised as to whether such consent could be granted. The matter was laid over to the next meeting, when Mr. Pala will have an estimate ready of the probable cost of the repairs.

Fire Chief Truax reported that the building next to the Central Hotel, and which was burned at the same time, is now in a dangerous condition, and City Clerk McSweeney was instructed to communicate with the owner, Joseph Biagini of Halfmoon Bay, and tell him the wreck must be torn down.

D. Palany brought up the matter of paving Railroad avenue between Spruce and Magnolia. After some discussion this was laid over for action at a later meeting.

Several bills against the city were read and ordered paid.

STUDENTS AT HIGH ENTERTAIN VISITORS

North End Eighth Grade Scholars Meet at So. S. F. School.

The all-day entertainment held at the South San Francisco high school last Friday for the eighth grade scholars of the north end of the county was a great success. There were 187 guests in attendance, including several teachers. Every event of the day went off according to schedule without a hitch, and the young visitors seemingly enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Eighth grade scholars of the schools of Daly City, Colma, San Bruno, and Lomita Park were present, as well as those from the same grade of the local school.

In the field meet the pupils of the local school won in both girls' and boys' events, Winifred Shaw being the winner for the girls and Ernest Bonalanza for the boys.

In a baseball game between the schools of San Bruno and Daly City, the San Bruno players won with a score of 18 to 9.

In the afternoon short sketches were staged in the high school auditorium by the students of the local high school. One of these was a skit from the play, "It Pays to Advertise," which will be given in its entirety at the auditorium the evening of May 28th.

Joshua Maule, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Maule of Miller avenue, is one of the graduating class at Sacred Heart this year.

PLAN TO FIGHT COUNTY GRAB SCHEME

COUNTY PRESERVATION LEAGUE
CALLS MEETING TO PREPARE
FOR FIGHTING PLAN TO JOIN
SAN MATEO CO. TO BIG CITY.

The meeting called by the San Mateo County Preservation League for May 22d at Redwood City has been postponed to June 5th, when it will be held in the chambers of the board of supervisors.

The league is determined that the movement to annex San Mateo county to San Francisco shall be frustrated. To that end, it has sent invitations to city councils and civic organizations all over San Mateo county to send representatives to this meeting, when steps on the procedure to be followed will be decided upon.

The league officials state they have been reliably informed that those back of the movement to annex this county to San Francisco are planning to "cut the teeth" out of the present enabling act at the next meeting of the legislature, with the idea of thus clearing the way for an annexation campaign. The enabling act as it stands was agreed upon by representatives of this county and San Francisco when annexation was agitated some years ago, and the Preservation League is determined that it shall not be altered and the way paved for San Mateo county to lose its identity by merging with the big city.

Judge Edward F. Fitzpatrick is president of the Preservation League and S. D. Merk secretary.

BATTANY IS CLEARED ON CHARGE OF SPYING

Steve Battany of South San Francisco, arrested recently on suspicion when he was discovered aboard the transport Mount Vernon and had difficulty explaining his presence there, was liberated by the San Francisco court last Friday, there being no evidence to show evil intention of any kind on his part. To friends in this city, where he has lived for four years, Battany explained that he went aboard the big ship in an attempt to learn something of his wife's brother who was last heard of six years ago when he was taken prisoner by the Russians, he having been a soldier in the Austrian army. Battany believed he might learn something of the man from the Austrians or Slavonians on board. Many of these had been prisoners in Siberia and told Battany heart-rending stories of the hardships they suffered. Many times, according to their story, they were near starvation, and kept life in their bodies by eating dogs, cats, or any other living thing they could get.

Battany learned nothing of his brother-in-law on the ship.

THIEVES STEAL THREE TIRES AND BATTERY

A bold attempt was made just before midnight last (Thursday) night to steal the Paige auto of William Rehberg at 110 Baden avenue, South San Francisco. That the car was not stolen is attributable to the forethought of Mr. Rehberg, who took the brush from the magneto the evening before. Mr. Rehberg had the same car stolen a year ago, and has taken this precaution since then. As it was, the thieves had made an attempt to drag the machine out with a rope. A piece of the broken line was still on the machine when Mr. Rehberg went to the garage on hearing a noise at midnight. Failing to get the car, the robbers had taken the spare tire and two of the others, besides the battery. The remaining two wheels were close against the wall and their tires could not be removed. Mr. Rehberg notified Nightwatchman McGraw immediately on discovering his loss, and an examination of the premises disclosed clues which it is believed may lead to the capture of the thieves.

HOW TO READ YOUR GAS METER

If you will look at your gas meter, you will notice three dials. That on the left hand, marked 100 thousand, registers 10,000 cubic feet of gas from one figure to the next. The middle dial, marked 10 thousand, registers 1,000 cubic feet from one figure to the next. The dial on the right, marked 1 thousand, registers 100 cubic feet from one figure to the next.

In reading, note the direction in which the pointers move, as indicated by the arrows, and set down the reading from LEFT to RIGHT, using the figure that the hand has last passed, unless the hand just covers the figure.

Suppose, for instance, that the pointer on the left hand dial rests nearest the figure 5, that on the middle dial nearest 3 and that on the right hand dial nearest 2; the whole reading, then, is 53,200 cubic feet. And that represents the total consumption of gas registered by that meter. Now subtract from that the total amount registered at last month's reading and you have your consumption of gas for the month. Apply the rate per 1000 cubic feet and you know the amount of your gas bill.

TRY READING YOUR OWN METER. You will find it is very easy to take periodic readings and keep a check on your gas consumption.

Should the Company's meter-reader make an error and over-read or under-read your meter, the mis-reading will automatically correct itself the following month and your next bill will be correspondingly less, or more, and no real injustice done to either the consumer or the Company.

shipments are now more by 29,328 barrels daily.

Down in Mexico everybody is profiteering in sugar. But in that they are only following our own noble example—so why kick?

How Many Homes Have You Paid For?

And how many homes do you own today? Recently a man came into our office that had decided years ago to apply his rent money toward the payment of a house. He soon rented the house to another fellow and his rent paid the balance on the house. He bought himself another one and another one, until today he owns several homes and has quit work. The rent money he now collects means a substantial income to him. The future is sure, bright and smiling for his wife and children.

Rent day never comes around to the man who owns his own Home.

A deed to your home is the best form of life insurance you can have.

We will build you a house to order, exactly as you plan it and upon a lot that suits your ideas. A small payment down and your rent money will pay for it. The man who owns his own home not only saves rent but makes money on the increased value in his property.

H. A. Bewley has also recovered from a badly infected hand.

YOUR LIBERTY BOND.

The United States government borrowed money from you to finance the war. You hold the government's promise to pay you back. This promise is called a Liberty bond or Victory note.

On this bond is stated the conditions under which the government borrowed the money from you.

For instance: If you hold a bond of the Third Liberty Loan, it states that on April 15th and October 15th of each year until maturity, you will receive interest on the amount you paid for the bond. Other issues bear other rates of interest and other maturity dates, all of which are clearly stated on the bond.

Now, if you keep your bond until the date when the government pays you in full for it, you do not need to worry if, in the meantime, the price is low one day or high the next. You and Uncle Sam are living up to your agreement with each other, and neither will lose by it.

On the other hand, if you sell your Liberty bond now, you will find that the man you sell it to will not give you a dollar for every dollar you paid for it. The price has been brought down because so many people are offering to sell their bonds. If the market is flooded with tomatoes, you can buy them cheap, but if every one is clamoring for tomatoes and there are few to be had, the price goes up. The same is true of Liberty bonds. Short-sighted people are dumping them on the market, and wise ones are buying them.

The best advice that can be given to the owner of a Liberty bond is this: Hold the bond you bought during the war; it is as safe and sound as the United States government itself.

Buy as many more at the present low rate as you can afford. If you hold them to maturity, you are bound to make the difference between what they sell at now and their face value. You will also receive good interest on your investment.

Hold on to your Liberty bonds and buy more.

ASSOCIATION PLANS OUTING FOR GRADUATES

At the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association held at Northbrae school Tuesday, it was decided to give the graduating class of this year a day's outing, the trip to be a visit to another school and a picnic. This outing will be given during the latter part of June. The recent contest among the various rooms for obtaining the greatest number of new members to the Parent-Teacher Association was ended with this meeting, and the classes are Mrs. Shaaf's, the seventh grade of Edgemont school, and Miss Lennen's, fourth and fifth grades of Northbrae school.

Much discussion took place concerning the new playground equipment to be installed in both schools by the association, and a committee was appointed to investigate the cost of installing apparatus.

The association now has eighty-seven members.

A son was born to the wife of Clyde Martin of Huntington Park on May 16th.

ARCHIE LISTER OF LOMITA DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Archie Lister, an old resident of Lomita Park, passed away last Wednesday after a lingering illness. Mr. Lister was one of the oldest residents of Lomita Park and was well liked by every one who knew him. Mr. Lister was for many years an employee of the Southern Pacific Company.

SAN BRUNO TROOP GETS FINE SCOUT TROPHY

The San Bruno Boy Scouts enjoyed a banquet in California Hall last Thursday evening at which the loving cup the San Bruno, Lomita Park and South San Francisco Scouts are striving for was presented to them by the South San Francisco troop. Billie Haley accepted the trophy on behalf of the local troop. Scoutmaster J. H. Galleher addressed the board, as did Commission Charles Lastreto, Dr. J. C. McGovern, Rev. Daniel Stevens, Dr. E. F. Ahnert, William Wilkins, and Dr. F. H. Smith. H. A. Bewley acted as toastmaster.

Much credit is due to W. N. Holliday for his untiring efforts to make this affair a success, and also to Mesdames J. H. Galleher, W. N. Holliday, and Peter Bolliger for preparing such a sumptuous repast.

FORMER SAN BRUNO GIRL MARRIES AT HAYWARD

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Holliday, Mrs. T. W. Forster and Miss Claire Forster attended the wedding of Miss Margaret Null, formerly of San Bruno, and James Byers of Middle River at Hayward last Sunday. Mrs. Byers is well known in San Bruno, being the daughter of the Rev. C. N. Null, formerly pastor of the San Bruno M. E. church.

Hans Iichen has purchased a new Chevrolet sedan.

About seventy-five small sodality children, accompanied by the sisters, spent last Saturday at Piedmont Park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yahrn from San Francisco spent Sunday last visiting Mr. and Mrs. Al Riddell and numerous friends and relatives hereabouts.

Mrs. R. C. Sheldon, one of the directors of the Girls' Club, has returned from her vacation at Los Angeles.

HOLDING CHURCH MISSION.

A mission is being held at Holy Angels' Church during the week by the Rev. Father R. Lewis from Stockton.

DOUBLE SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN BY GIRLS' CLUB

On Thursday night last a double surprise party took place at the Girls' Club rooms on Dunks street in honor of Mrs. Henry Ward Brown, who recently returned from a vacation at Honolulu, and Mrs. George Wright (nee Anita Volkman), a popular member of the club.

The evening was spent in listening to stories of Mrs. Brown's trip, and with music, singing, dancing, indoor games, many funny stunts and impersonations by the girls.

Home-made refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in the prevailing colors of green and yellow.

(CORINNE GRIFFITH)

It was particularly appropriate that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, should have selected Corinne Griffith for the leading role of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers," for she has been steadily climbing ever since she left her home in the south to become a film player. Now she has reached the top rung of film success. In addition to her imposing personal appearance and histrionic talent, Miss Griffith has the happy faculty of wearing beautiful and unusual gowns with grace and has had a splendid athletic training. Some of her most recent features have been "A Girl at Bay," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collateral" and "Deadline at Eleven."

CLOTHING PRICES.

Glory, Hallelujah! the price of clothing is coming down. From all over the East come dispatches telling the story that clothing is being offered at 20 per cent and 25 per cent reductions. That which we were beginning to believe would happen only when the millennium arrived shows signs of coming our way. Of course, this downward movement is not credited to the demonstrations everywhere against the atrocious prices charged, the overalls, etc., but nevertheless aroused public opinion, the mightiest force in our national life, is probably responsible for the break in prices.

In Los Angeles the other day restaurant keepers put the price of a cup of coffee up from 5 cents to 10 cents, and a few days later put it back to 5 cents again because they were losing their customers.

There is a noticeable tendency among the big department stores to cut prices in dry goods as well as clothing. Shoes are still steady at sky-high prices, but the time of their fall from the peak may not be far off.

Oh, boy! Even an editor may yet be able to eat three times a day once more and wear trousers that do not shine.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

The Radcliffe Chautauqua opens a three-day engagement in South San Francisco today, and all who have the best interests of this city and of the entire north end of San Mateo county at heart should do all within their means to make its engagement here a great success. Never before have residents of this part of the county had the opportunity to attend entertainment features of the quality of those provided by the Chautauqua at anywhere near the price offered, and it is up to them to show their appreciation. The Chautauqua does not need South San Francisco, for its great circuits take in hundreds of cities and one would not be missed, but South San Francisco and the country roundabout does need the Chautauqua. Its elevating and educational influence is felt long after its departure. Let's make its visit here a great success. If you haven't bought a ticket yet there is still time.

WHEN WORK KILLS

Many people will tell you that work never kills any one. But it does. There is a certain pace that men travel that requires work—work of a peculiar kind—work that leads inevitably to disaster.

That is the work that has dissipation as its goal. The young man who spends hours chasing the wild orgies of the bright lights is a worker. He toils diligently in his search for new thrills, for the sordid and seamy side of life, for the "skirt" that smiles when he nods his head.

His brain is ever on the alert—seeking—and at each step his vitality becomes weaker and weaker.

In time he becomes old in his youth, his frame but an empty shell, his mind a conglomeration of selfishness and debauchery. It requires work to go this pace—work that leads to the open grave.

Every force makes for good or evil, with the steering wheel in your own hands. The wise man turns it with care, but the fool gives it a twist at random.

And still it is quite safe for the millionaire to wear overalls. There's always a line of distinction between crease and grease.

A keen mind, a healthy body and a willingness to do should make a success of any man—but it often sends them to jail instead.

There is no end to the financial wants of mankind. Those of us who have no money want it, and those who have it want more.

Earth holds many blessings for you, but it is not hunting you with a brass band and a delegation of orators. Get out and hustle.

Many cities are boasting of their increase in population. But it would be more to the purpose to lament over the depopulation of the farms.

When a man achieves sudden fame and proceeds to make a noise about it he is quickly forgotten. The world has little use for a false alarm.

A wish gratified is no longer a wish.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

CONFESSIONS OF A TEACHER.

We are not a pleasant sight to look upon, we teachers, in these days. We are anxious and harassed men; some on the verge of a breakdown from sheer worry as to what the morrow may bring forth. Why any successful man, who wants his children to be successful, should send them to us, in the present state of our morale, is a question that sometimes puzzles us. Yet these young men are sent, in numbers that are taxing the capacity of every institution in the land. I, myself, am teaching 50 per cent more men than in any preceding year. Teaching them economics—the science of the production and distribution of wealth!

How can you expect your sons and daughters to accept the standards and ideals we teachers are trying to give them, if the world treats us as of little account? Which is worth more to you, anyway, the man who drives your car, paints your back fence, or cuts your grass, or the man who children and helps to fit them for a useful and honorable life? It seems to show that you consider the chauffeur, the painter, and a hundred other groups of men worth more than the children are not blind. They see it. You need not wonder at the indifference toward education.—Extracts from American Magazine.

While driving near
The railroad once
Not long ago
I saw a gang of
Laborers cleaning
Weeds and grass from off
The right-of-way.
And growing there,
Midst grimy rocks and weeds,
Were many golden poppies
Lifting glowing cups
Unto their parent sun.
And all those blooms alike
Were seized as weeds
And torn away
And cast aside
To perish.
It struck me then
That oftentimes we gauge
Our values by a thing's
Familiarity, or by
The ease with which
'Tis gained.
We walk for miles and climb
The sides of hills
To gather golden poppies,
But when they
Brave soot and grime and oil
To bloom in spotless radiance
Beneath a railroad track,
We tear them up
And throw them all away.
There is no moral
To this tale, unless
It be that cups of gold
Are but as weeds
To one who has no soul
Above the grime.

I THANK YOU.

Woman's World

PRACTICAL RECIPES

Tomato Sauce for Bean Loaf.

Stew tomatoes, strain and put the juice down to boil with a little of the mixture; add salt and paprika; thicken to consistency of drawn butter with a little flour.

Chile Con Carne and Beans

½ pound pink beans.
½ teaspoon soda.
¼ pound well-seasoned hamburger steak or chopped left-over meat.
1½ teaspoon salt.
1 clove garlic or 1 chopped onion.
Small slice fat pork.
1 tablespoon flour.
½ cup chopped canned green chile.
1 can tomato sauce.

Soak beans over night and in morning add salt and soda and boil until beans are tender. Cut pork into small pieces and fry until fat is tried out; add steak or left-over meat; sprinkle with flour and brown. Add chopped chile, tomato sauce, onion or garlic and one cup of water. Bake in moderate oven for one hour, adding more water if necessary.

Spanish Beans No. 2

1 quart kidney beans.
1 quart tomatoes.
1 clove garlic.
1 tablespoons Spanish pepper.
¼ teaspoon tabasco sauce.
1 pound cooked pickled pork
2 large onions.
½ can pimentos.
¼ teaspoon nutmeg.
2 tablespoons sugar.

Soak the kidney beans over night and boil until tender. Add the pickled pork, which has been previously cooked, and put through grinder. Add tomatoes, onions chopped fine, garlic, and chopped pimentos, Spanish pepper, tabasco sauce, nutmeg, sugar, and salt to taste. Bake in moderate oven four hours.

Bean Souffle

1 pint hot boiled bean pulp.
1 teaspoon onion juice.
2 eggs.
2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.
Beat yolks of eggs and add to above ingredients. Fold in the well-beaten whites of the eggs. Heap mixture lightly in a baking dish. Bake in slow oven for about 20 minutes, or until it is set. Serve immediately.

Bean Pie

2½ cups cooked pink beans.
3 eggs well beaten.
1½ cups sugar.
Nutmeg to taste.
Mash the pink beans fine; add sugar, eggs and nutmeg. If mixture is too thick a little milk may be added to form a custard similar to that for a pumpkin pie. Prepare crust and make the same as custard or pumpkin pie.

Bean Crust

1 cup boiled pink beans.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
2 tablespoons melted fat.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 egg.
Flour to make soft dough.
Combine above and roll out mixture to about one-eighth inch thick on well-floured board. Cut strips of suitable size when folded for individual pies. Fill pies with chopped cooked meat or vegetables. Fold crust over and press along edges. Bake in moderate oven until well browned.

MRS. H. W. BROWN WEDS IN SAN FRANCISCO

A marriage occurred in San Francisco Monday night in which many people in San Mateo county and especially in the north end will be interested, when Mrs. Henry Ward Brown of Colma became the wife of James Henderson of Chicago. Mrs. Brown, widow of the late Henry Ward Brown, former assemblyman from San Mateo county, was one of the best known and most universally loved women in San Mateo county. During the war Mrs. Brown was very prominent in war work. The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. McKay performing the ceremony.

LADY SWAYTHLING

Lady Swaythling, who is making a tour of America with her husband, is one of the handsomest women in British society. This is her first visit to the United States. In Washington she was the guest of Mme. Slavko Grouitch, wife of the minister from Serbia.

Significance in Change.

There is an appropriateness about this disappearance of the Swan hotel in Frankfurt, where was signed, in 1871, the peace closing the war between France and Germany. The hotel is being pulled down to give place to a large cinema palace, the furniture of the room in which the treaty was signed being sent to the Frankfurt museum. Nothing more thoroughly obliterated of the past could be imagined than this advent of a cinema where history was once made. Nothing but a few chairs and a table stowed in a museum will remain to tell the story of what was once such very heavy utility.

Statesmen Careless Dressers.

As Lord Lytton was the worst dressed man in one generation in the house of lords, so was the duke of Norfolk in the other, and there is nothing at all unlikely in the story of Mr. Balfour appearing in the lobby in a flannel shirt, a frock coat, gray flannel trousers and brown tennis shoes. It was the garb which to his mind best suggested a compromise between tennis and the house of commons; so he wore it—and would have been surprised had any one commented on it in his hearing. Undersecretaries, on the other hand, are generally rather carefully dressed.—London Times.

LADIES' SEWING CLUB SURPRISE MRS. COLEBERG

The members of the Sewing Club of the Methodist church held a surprise party for Mrs. J. W. Coleberg Saturday night. The affair was planned to offer opportunity to bid Mrs. Coleberg good-bye before her departure for an all-summer visit in Indiana. The evening was spent in sewing, and refreshments the self-invited had brought were served.

Pretty and Practical Bathing Suits

We are apt to think that things practical, in any kind of apparel, are sure to be commonplace and unattractive and that things pretty are likely to be impractical. But the designers of bathing suits have finally succeeded in turning out beach clothes that are both practical and pretty. After a lot of experimenting with fabrics and styles they have furnished the bathers of this season good looking and comfortable clothes, "from the crown of their heads to the soles of their feet." Every item in the bather's outfit has been carefully thought out.

Capes to wear to and from the beach prove the most acceptable of garments, for they are made of cloths that water does not damage, as Turkish toweling, jersey cloth, rubberized cloths and certain silks. Caps to match in color are cleverly draped so as to be not unbecoming and are made of rubber and trimmed with rubber ornaments and flowers. With a cape that has not been in the water and a cap that refuses to be wet, one can return from a swim and walk even city streets homeward, conscious of being presentable.

In the picture of two bathing suits shown here, one is of taffeta silk and the other of black wool jersey with white stripes in the collar and short sleeves, and around the bottom of the knickerbockers and skirt. The cape is of rose-colored bath toweling, and the cap of rubber matches it in color and is trimmed with little rubber flowers. Black silk stockings and cloth shoes complete as satisfactory a suit as the season has produced.

The other suit is of blue taffeta, the full knickerbockers gathered on an elastic cord above the knees. It has a short, slit skirt and a long-waisted bodice, also short sleeves formed by a small flounce of taffeta. The stockings match the suit in color, but the shoes are black and high at the back, lacing with white cord or tape across the front.

Julia Bottomley

Lingerie Hats of Chantilly.

Lingerie hats made of black chantilly lace and modeled after the bonnets worn by the peasants of Lorraine are quite a feature in the hats for advanced summer wear. The most effective of these models are made with low full tulle crowns gathered into a medium high head band in mob cap style. To the band are attached two or three full gathered ruffles of different widths of black chantilly lace.

Net Dress Needed.

No summer wardrobe is complete without at least one net dress, because they are delightfully cool and comfortable for hot afternoons or evenings. A simple and becoming little affair is a frock of white net and voile combined, trimmed with a bit of embroidery done in heavy white cotton threads and girdled with a corded net sash.

Wedding Gowns of Satin.

The most distinguished of wedding gowns are of duchesse satin, very plain with lace veil forming the only ornament.

The Home Paper.

It's like a smiling friendly face,
It's like a voice you long have known,
You see it in some distant place
And rush to claim it for your own.
The paper from your old home town
Has bridged the long and weary miles
And with it you can settle down
Among familiar tears and smiles.
It speaks for every friend you know,
It tells of scenes you yearn to see;
It brings back joys of long ago
And tells of joys that are to be.
And as you run its columns o'er
Your yesterdays come trooping back;
You fancy you're at home once more,

And golden seem the letters black.

Its speech is one you understand,
It tells of griefs that you can share,
It brings you, in that foreign land,
Glad messages to banish care.
There, among scenes and faces strange,
The old home paper seems to be
The faithful friend that doesn't change,
A friend that you are glad to see.
I know not just what heaven is like,
Nor just what joys beyond life's tide
Await for me, when death shall strike
And I shall reach the other side.
But this I know when I have gone
To dwell in realms divinely fair
My soul will yearn to look upon
The old-home paper over there.

Are trains always on time, Dad?
No, my son, but they always are when you are a few minutes late yourself.

"Of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven"

Inside the great brass statue of Moloch a roaring fire was built on holy days.

And into the seething arms of the pitiless god mothers hurled their screaming infants.

In the South Sea Islands, when either parent died, the children were slain and buried also, to wait the parent in the other world.

In China the girl babies were drowned; in Greece they were exposed upon the bleak and bitter mountainsides.

And even Socrates, the greatest of the Greeks, saw nothing in the practice to condemn.

Thus the ancient heathen world treated its babies.

Who was it that changed the world's thought about children? Who made them the most important citizens of the world?

Jesus of Nazareth. It was He who said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not."

He gave them the proud privilege of being His friends.

In every age His Church has been the champion of childhood. Dathous, a Christian Bishop, founded the first orphan asylum. All the laws for the protection of children have their roots and their security in His Church.

CHATTER FROM THE WORLD OF SPORTS

WAR WAS HARD ON THE ROYAL SPORT OF POLO

The fact that it may be several years before there is any international polo match between the United States and England, brings out sharply the fact that this game was one of the greatest sufferers because of the world war and that it will take all of this time to recover from the effects of the great conflict.

The reason for this is that the cessation of polo during the war period resulted in the various stables of ponies being scattered right and left. Some were taken by their owners for special service, and many were let go completely because army use could not be found for them.

American polo players concede the deplorable lack of ponies, and it has well been stated that a greater part of this season in the United States will be devoted as much to schooling new ponies as it will be to the schooling of men.

The far West has produced the best of the ponies to be found on the polo fields on both sides of the Atlantic, and fortunately there is plenty of this green material available to be licked into playing shape. Easterners have their agents on the watch in California for promising polo horseflesh.

SHAMROCK'S CREW ALL GREAT WAR VETERANS

It is an interesting fact that although Sir Thomas Lipton is an Irishman, and the challenge for the America's cup was issued by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club of Belfast, Ireland, this is the sum total of all that is Irish in connection with the Shamrock IV. The racer was built in England, and every man-Jack of her crew is an Englishman. It also is worthy of note that every man of the crew is also a veteran of the Great War. Most of them did work in connection with naval service, such as manning patrol vessels and planting mines.

Captain Albert Turner, her professional skipper, and all but two of her crew are from Cornwall, England. The average age of the men is 35 years. Three were in the crew of the Shamrock III, when she raced here for the cup seventeen years ago. They are Edward Herd, mate; William Clark, chief cook, and Arthur Barnett, seaman.

SKI JUMPING TOURNEY FOR MOUNT RAINIER, WASH.

The committee in charge is busy lining up all the best ski jumpers from all parts of the country. Seven trophies are to be awarded and the entries will close at Tacoma, Wash., on May 31st.

QUINN BRINGS HOME THE SIDE PORK AGAIN

Quinn in Fighting Pose

Jack Quinn of South San Francisco added another scalp to his belt Tuesday night at San Mateo when he laid George O'Rourke of San Francisco away in the first round. Quinn's friends had expected a hard battle for their man, as O'Rourke has the reputation of being a hard fighter, but he proved easy game for the battling South San Francisco lad.

Quinn's manager, Dick Huntington, has received an offer for his protegee to fight Friday night at Dreamland in San Francisco, but has declined because of several scraps he has already arranged for his man.

Al Doyle of Daly City, who fought one of the evening's events at San Mateo, lost the decision. Doyle has proven his metal and stamina time and again, but was not up to his usual form Tuesday night.

OLYMPIC CYCLE TESTS TO BE HELD AT STOCKTON

(By William Unmack, Pacific Sports Service.)

The Pacific Association of Wheelmen has received official notification from Chairman F. Kelsey of the American Olympic Games cycling committee that Stockton, Calif., has been named as the center for holding the coast trials for selecting men to represent this country at the Antwerp Olympic cycling races. The final tests will be held at Westchester, N. Y., on July 8th. The coast trials at Stockton are set for June 15th.

The trials at Stockton will probably be ridden between Stockton and Madera, a distance of 100 miles. The Olympic games distance is 175 miles, or about 108.74 miles. Walter Jones of Stockton holds the American amateur record for the 100 miles road distance, having ridden between Stockton and Madera in 5 hours 5 mins. 52 secs. last season. Teams are expected to enter the trials at Stockton from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Stockton, Sacramento, Portland, and Seattle. The Olympic games rules allow each country to enter a team of six men with only four to start. Chairman Kelsey states that the limit team will be entered.

SEATTLE BALL TEAM PAYS BIG PRICE FOR PLAYER

The three thousand dollars paid by the Seattle ball club to Sacramento for Brick Eldred is one of the largest deals made by two coast league clubs. The Seattle owners are willing to spend the money if they can find the talent they want. Eldred is now back where he was a few years ago. He formerly played centerfield for Seattle before he went to the Chicago White Sox.

OREGON TO HAVE FINEST TRAP SHOOTING FIELD

Lake county (Oregon) sportsmen are to have one of the finest trap shooting plants on the coast. The traps are being built at the State Game Farm near Eugene and will have all the most up-to-date appliances for the trap sport. Concrete pits are being built. The first of a long run of tournaments will be started at the new pits early next month.

TWO BURNED IN ACID BATH AT STEEL WORKS

E. M. Owen, who lives at the Metropolitan Hotel, and C. T. Sjolander of San Francisco, both employees of the steel mill, were taken to the South San Francisco Hospital Wednesday suffering from burns about the face and hands. The burns were sustained from splattering "flux," the acid bath used for steel in the galvanizing department at the mill.

COUNTY SEAT HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM BIG FIRE

The business district of Redwood City had a narrow escape from a disastrous fire Monday night. The blaze broke out in a battery station at about 11:30, and only prompt and vigorous action on the part of the local fire department saved a conflagration. The fire is believed to have started from crossed electric wires.

The alarm was rung in by the night-watchman, and when the department arrived the interior of the shop was a mass of flames. Three streams of water were played on the fire for three-quarters of an hour before it was gotten under control. Because of many closely adjoining buildings, it is considered the town had a narrow escape.

The loss from the blaze is estimated at about $3000.

SUNDAY CLASS PLANS PARCEL POST SALE

The girls of Mrs. C. Coffinberry's Sunday school class at the Methodist church are planning a "Parcel Post" sale for next Tuesday night. There will be many articles offered for sale, all of a guaranteed value of 25 cents. All articles must be bought "unsight, unseen." Popcorn, candy, and ice cream will also be sold during the evening.

The class has pledged $150 toward the building fund of the new church and is taking this method of raising the money.

PLAN YOSEMITE TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coffinberry will leave this week-end by auto for Yosemite Valley. Accompanying them will be Mrs. A. Talbert and Mrs. George Spencer of Garrett, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Whitehead of Redwood City.

Money comes easy, goes easier, and we're d-d uneasy when we haven't got it.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO A HISTORY

The beginning of local civil government in South San Francisco came early in the year 1892, through the appointment of a justice of the peace and a constable in and for the first township of San Mateo county; both places being vacant, one by resignation, the other through change of residence.

The board of supervisors were evidently impressed by the vigor and rapid growth of the new city, and in recognition thereof filled the vacant official positions by appointing J. H. Hubachek justice of the peace and J. P. Hill constable.

Judge Hubachek was a druggist and at the time of his appointment, in May, 1892, had just opened the first drug store in South San Francisco. Judge Hubachek's drug store was in a one-story frame building, which stood on the lot now occupied by the Galli Bros., the property of Mrs. George Wallace.

Judge Hubachek was a very capable pharmacist, a talented and educated gentleman, and a well-seasoned Democratic politician, who from his business and official headquarters on Grand avenue dispensed medicine and justice with equal facility, and with such accuracy and equity that every one was pleased, without regard to race, party, class, creed, or condition.

At the election of county and township officers in November, 1892, Judge Hubachek, the Democratic nominee, was elected justice of the peace for the term of two years, from January 1, 1893, defeating Ed Dunn, the Republican candidate. Between the day of his election and the 1st of January, 1893, Judge Habachek was offered and accepted the management of a large drug business in Oakland, leaving the office of justice of the peace once more at the disposal of the board of supervisors.

Judge Hubachek was a political brave of the Iroquois Tribe, a member of the potent Democratic Iroquois Club of San Francisco; consequently when Jim Budd's spectacular buckboard campaign gave California a Democratic governor, Governor Budd gave Judge Hubachek the position of pharmacist at San Quentin prison. At the end of the Budd administration Hubachek returned to San Francisco, where he died some ten years ago. Constable Hill gave up the constableness and left San Mateo county before the end of 1892. He was succeeded by W. E. Wagner.

The First Board of Trade

A meeting was held at Baden Hotel on Saturday, May 21, 1892, for the purpose of organizing a board of trade in South San Francisco. The call for the meeting was signed by J. H. Cammitt, D. O. Daggett, G. Y. Moraga, E. E. Cunningham, W. J. McEwen, J. H. Hubachek, W. E. Wagner, Patrick Ferriter, J. Eikerenkotter & Co., M. F. Healy, R. L. Wright, James H. Smith, H. W. Walker, C. F. Crouse, C. L. Barnes, M. Vanderbugle, Charles V. Lodge, A. Sadler, W. J. Martin, J. Q. Pearce, and F. W. Koester.

The meeting was called to order by C. L. Barnes. Adopting the report of the committee on permanent organization, E. E. Cunningham was made president; J. H. Hubachek, first vice-president; C. L. Barnes, second vice-president; W. J. Martin, secretary, and F. M. Persinger, treasurer. D. O. Daggett, J. Hubachek, M. Vanderbugle, C. L. Barnes, and T. E. Driscoll were chosen directors, with the president, secretary, and treasurer as ex-officio members of the board.

The South San Francisco board of trade continued active from May 21, 1892, to August 9, 1895, when the last meeting was held. It was a live wire in the life of the new city for more than three years. Of the public welfare work done by that first organized civic body, it is fitting that this history should record the following acts accomplished:

For the encouragement and protection of the hotelkeepers of the business district, the Land and Improvement Company was prevailed upon to close a boarding house at the water front, known as "The Point House."

Money was raised by the board of trade for the purchase of 500 feet of fire hose and other needed fire apparatus, and through the efforts of the board the Land and Improvement Company donated a hose cart and 500 feet of fire hose, resulting in the organization of a fire company for the protection of the city against fire.

Through its efforts $10,000 in bonds were voted in 1892, and the first public school building, with four class rooms, was erected.

As a result of its application to the board of supervisors in January, 1893, for the establishment of the grade on San Bruno road where this road forms a street in South San Francisco, a searching and thorough investigation was made by a committee, and it was found beyond any possibility of successful dispute that the Spring Valley Water Company had never obtained a right of way for its water main on San Bruno road; consequently when, many years later, the incorporated city of South San Francisco notified the Spring Valley Water Company to lower its big water main on San Bruno road, the water company complied.

The first fire company was organized about June, 1892, with Carl Dunn as foreman. Among the members of the first fire company were the following: W. J. Martin, Judge J. H. Hubachek, C. F. Crouse, G. Y. Moraga, Pat Ferriter, Billy Neff, Tom Beners, C. L. Barnes, Fred Koester, E. J. Brown, Teddy Black, H. L. Kofod, and Ira Dick. This first fire company was short lived. The following year (1893) Baden Hose Company No. 1 was organized, with W. E. Wagner as foreman. The roll of membership was lost, but its activity continued for two years, during which time uniforms for its members had been provided and 500 feet of new hose purchased.

And thus, according to the early chronicles, this city—gateway to all the peninsula country—was in training as an infant for the beginning of its onward march toward its ultimate goal as the industrial metropolis of San Francisco bay.

HIGH POWER WIRE BREAKS; GIVES FIREWORKS DISPLAY

A P. G. and E. power wire, carrying 100,000 volts of electricity, broke and fell to the ground by the office at the steel mill at about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning. For about four hours the steel plant was without power. Several "heats" in the furnace at the time were badly damaged. Those who were at the mill at the time the break occurred declare the electric display from the broken line equal to a fireworks exhibition.

G. F. DELANEY WRITES FROM SONOMA, CALIFORNIA

From Sonoma, Calif., George F. Delaney of Visitation has written the following interesting letter to The Enterprise:

Sonoma, Calif.

Editor Enterprise: I am writing from the dearest town of its size on earth. It has the very best climate, a beautiful location, fertile soil, and a history to conjure with, but its present occupants apparently are dead and awaiting burial. If W. J. Martin or any one like him, as he was in the early nineties, when he had to hustle to keep warm and be able to eat three times a day, should take the trouble to wake these people up and introduce some modern methods and inject a little "pep" into the community, he could make a fortune in short order. The town is a "riot of roses," has everything to make it a success if some "live wire" would take hold of it.

I have been coming up here for years to recuperate, and believe me, it's some place for that purpose, but for no other. I guess the old Spanish settlers' spirits still dominate with their manana. The old Vallejo home is still occupied by the old general's daughter. There is a feeling of veneration for old things that we moderns don't seem to appreciate. They have the old "Blue Wing" gambling house, the old El Dorado Hotel, the old "Cuartel," the old flagpole on which was raised the original Bear Flag. In fact, everything in the town is old. The N. S. G. W. have "restored" the old mission, but have been unable to awaken the people to the great possibilities of their town. If I could take this climate to South City I would die a millionaire. The streets are lined with locust trees that are now in bloom, every yard and fence corner is ablaze with multicolored flowers, and the air is redolent with the perfume of new-mown hay, and to think I have soon to leave it and return to the hard grind makes me sad, but the poet hath said "Into each life some rain shall fall," and who am I that I should kick? Boyes Springs is but

BEAUTIFUL TROPHY TO BE GIVEN IN LEAGUE

A beautiful cup, donated by the Samuels Jewelry Company of San Francisco to be given the winner of the series of baseball games to be played this summer by the South San Francisco Industrial League, has been received and is now on exhibition in the window of Julie's candy store. The cup is a splendid piece of work and bears the name of its donor, being engraved with the title of the "Albert Samuels Trophy."

The first games of the series scheduled for the league will take place on the local high school grounds Saturday. It will be a double-header event, the town team playing the Virden Packing Company's team and the team representing the steel works playing the Western Meat Company's organization.

It is planned that two games will be played each Sunday until each team has played all the others, when the winners will compete in the finals. The different teams will be composed of some of the very best baseball talent in this end of the county.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE IS NEARING ITS CLOSE

Hundredse of workers throughout the state are now bringing to a close the financial appeal of the county and state advisory boards of the Salvation Army for the support of the home service program mapped out for this organization for the ensuing year.

From all parts of the state reports indicate that the work of the Salvation Army has the approval and support of the public. Many counties have now subscribed or oversubscribed their quotas. Others are nearing the completion of their quotas. In every instance, however, the teams making the army's appeal are reporting progress.

a couple of miles away and I take a trip over every day and on the whole am having a good time.

Respectfully,

G. F. DELANEY.

BOY SCOUTS ATTEND HILLSBOROUGH MEET

Dr. J. C. McGovern and the Rev. Daniel Stevens, accompanied by a number of the members of the South San Francisco troop of Boy Scouts, attended the open-air meeting of Scouts held at the polo field at Hillsborough Sunday afternoon. It was a gathering attended by a large number of spectators, and Scouts were present from South San Francisco, San Bruno, Lomita Park, Burlingame, San Mateo, and Hillsborough.

A special team of Boy Scouts from San Francisco gave demonstrations of first aid and signaling, which proved very interesting and instructive to the boys as well as the grownups, and addresses were made by Colonel Denby, U. S. A., and the Rev. Walter H. Cambridge.

The clubhouse of the San Mateo Polo Club was thronged during the exercises, and at the close of the day refreshments were served to the visiting Scouts and their executives. Music was furnished by the San Mateo union high school band.

SHIP HOTEL IS SOLD; UNDERGOES RENOVATION

The Ship Hotel has changed hands and will soon be opened once more, after a thorough cleaning and renovating from cellar to attic. Mrs. Agnes Hunter of San Francisco, an experienced hotel woman and for four and a half years manager of the Hotel Carlton in San Francisco, has taken over the management under the new owner, L. Alpers. Mrs. Hunter states the Ship will be run as a first-class, popular-priced hotel. The restaurant will be closed temporarily to allow of its being thoroughly cleaned and renovated, when it will open as a popular-priced eating house.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS; WAGE SCALE OFFERED

The South San Francisco school board held a meeting Tuesday afternoon in the office at the grammar school. Ways and means of procedure in the matter of acquiring a new grammar school building in the north end of town were discussed, but no conclusion reached, the difficulty being that the sum recently voted—$9600—is entirely inadequate for the purchasing of land and erecting a building. No plan of action was agreed upon at the meeting, but it is reported that sentiment among the board members inclines to putting an auto stage into service to bring the pupils to school if a new building cannot be provided.

During the meeting a committee of the grammar school teachers waited upon the board with a new wage scale they wish put in force. No action was taken by the school officials.
